

The 2024 General Election ballot contains 14 statewide initiatives. Some are amendments to the Colorado constitution while others would make changes to state law. Some are Referred to the ballot by a vote of the Legislature. Others are Citizen Initiated measures requiring petition signatures to get to the ballot.

Below is the final list of initiatives, along with the final title, you will see on your ballot.

The most current Bell Policy Center Ballot Guide provides an excellent view of each of the initiatives, including detailed pros and cons.

The Colorado Blue Book also provides detailed information about each initiative, including pros and cons.

As noted below, AAUW of Colorado has taken Support/Oppose positions on four of these initiatives.
